

The CIGB's Direction of Biomedical Research invites you to attend the VIII International Meeting on Bioinformatics and OMICs: BIOINFOMICs 2018, an International Meeting on Bioinformatics and OMICs which is going to be held in September 17-20, 2018.

The Symposium is aimed to integrate technologies for OMICS data generation such as genomics, glycomics, proteomics, bioinformatics, statistical methods and their impact in Personalized and Precision Medicine, Genetics and cellular Therapies. The meeting stimulates an interactive and attractive environment that brings together a multidisciplinary community whose objective is to develop treatments and molecular diagnostics for patients.

General Topics

Personalize and Precision Medicine

Genetics and cellular Therapies

Biomarker Signatures

Molecular Diagnostics

Next Generation Sequencing (NGS)

Liquid Biopsy & Circulating Nucleic Acids

Integrative Big Data Analysis

Non-coding RNAs-microRNA, isomiRs, small RNAs, long non-coding RNAs

MicroGenomics & Single-Cells Diagnostics

MIQE & QM & Standardisation Strategies in Molecular Diagnostics

Important Dates

Deadline for Early Registration

Friday, July 20, 2018

Deadline for submission of Abstracts

Friday, August 17, 2018
